Our Media ONE Ailments and Pain Sufferers Database is composed of consumers who suffer from various diseases, illnesses and medical conditions. These consumers are open to receiving information and products related to their conditions. These individuals have filled out online surveys stating that they suffer from a variety of conditions such as insomnia, thyroid problems, chronic pain, etc

These consumers want to stay up to date on the latest treatments to their ailments and are great prospects for medical services which improve quality of life. This is the list for you if you're looking to target consumers for medical insurance offers, pharmaceutical offers, prescriptions, vitamins, treatments, chiropractic services, fitness memberships, wellness related publications, etc.

Each record is confirmed for accuracy and deliverability. As a matter of fact, you'll find that Media One's list hygiene standards are some of the most stringent in the industry.

Your list will be custom created to meet your exact needs with more than 133 demographic, lifestyle, interest and behavior characteristics available.

We are the source, we aggregate and compile data ourselves on a quarterly basis. NCOA and ECOA is done on output of order.
