Media ONE's Investors File includes consumers who make investments and persistently search for opportunities to further invest and gain profitable returns. These consumers are self-reported to own stocks and bonds and have opted in via permission-based websites to receive information, news, and offers on new investment prospects.

These investors are motivated to keep up with the latest trends in the investment market. These consumers are great prospects for bonds, stocks, mutual funds, precious metals, real-estate, commodities, business investment opportunities, and any service that can help them keep up with investment trends.

Each record is confirmed for accuracy and deliverability. As a matter of fact, you'll find that Media One's list hygiene standards are some of the most stringent in the industry.

Your list will be custom created to meet your exact needs with more than 133 demographic, lifestyle, interest and behavior characteristics available.

We are the source, we aggregate and compile data ourselves on a quarterly basis. NCOA and ECOA is done on output of order.
