Our Job Seekers database is comprised of savvy individuals seeking a job. The data collected for this list is combined from online permission based sources where these individuals have opted-in to receive job opportunity and third party offers.

All respondents are actively looking for a job making them great prospects for job opportunities, business opportunities, investment opportunities, etc. This list is also great if you are looking to target individuals with any coupons or offers.

Each record is confirmed for accuracy and deliverability. As a matter of fact, you'll find that Media One's list hygiene standards are some of the most stringent in the industry.

Your list will be custom created to meet your exact needs with more than 133 demographic, lifestyle, interest and behavior characteristics available.

We are the source, we aggregate and compile data ourselves on a quarterly basis. NCOA and ECOA is done on output of order.
